Remarks

Step into timeless Old Florida charm with this captivating 2-bedroom, 2-bath mid-century gem, perfectly nestled in the coveted South Gate neighborhood of Sarasota. Built in 1956, this enchanting residence sits gracefully on a spacious .2-acre lot, radiating the warmth and character that define classic Sarasota living. Imagine mornings spent savoring coffee on your serene outdoor patio surrounded by lush greenery, while soaking in the gentle Florida breeze. Just minutes from the vibrant heart of downtown Sarasota, you're perfectly positioned to enjoy world-class dining, eclectic boutiques, and lively cultural experiences at your doorstep. And for those irresistibly sun-kissed days, the pristine Gulf Coast beaches are a short scenic drive away, calling you to unwind on sugar-white sands and sparkling turquoise waters. Inside, the home reveals spacious living areas adorned with authentic mid-century architectural details that invite you to create your own personalized oasis. Recent updates include a 7-year-old roof and impact-rated windows, providing peace of mind, energy efficiency, and added value. The generous floor plan beckons your creative touch-whether that means stylish renovations or preserving its nostalgic charm. 2553 Tulip Street is more than a home: it's a rare opportunity to
